Pre-conference Tutorials

So You Want to Apply for the Georgia Oglethorpe Award or Just Use the Criteria?

Ken Leach, President, Leach Quality Inc. and Georgia Oglethorpe Panel of Judges 1997-2001

Learn how to address the Criteria for Performance Excellence requirements from a man who has coached thirteen Malcolm Baldrige recipients. Gain insight into how to assess your organization against the Criteria, discover how to close the gaps by structuring internally to address them, and learn the process for applying for low-cost, high-value assessment, feedback, and the award. Know how to document your management system so that you maximize the examiners' ability to understand your business and understand ways to prepare your organization to optimize learning from a site visit.

Building a High Performance Business Management System

Davina Henderson, Site Manager for Process Integration, Lockheed Martin Aeronautics
Tom Parks, Sr., MQM, Quality Consultant, Black Belt, World-wide Service Logistics, NCR Corporation
Randy Lott, Site Manager for Assembly Processes, Lockheed Martin Aeronautics

This workshop will explore the benefits of implementing 6 Sigma, Lean Manufacturing, ISO 9001:2000 Standard and/or using the Georgia Oglethorpe Award process to build a high performance business management system. You will gain knowledge by comparing the advantages of implementing the ISO standards and/or using the Georgia Oglethorpe Criteria. Learn what Lean Manufacturing and Six Sigma's roles are in the process and how to apply them. At the end of these sessions, you will better understand the integration and use of these systems to assess and understand the needs of your organization.

Tuesday's Emcee and Luncheon Speaker

Timothy Mescon, Ph.D.
Dean, Michael J. Coles College of Business
Kennesaw State University

Dr. Timothy Mescon is Dean of the Michael J. Coles College of Business at Kennesaw State University where he holds the Dinos Chair of Entrepreneurial Management. Through his leadership, the College has been recognized by Success magazine and U.S. News and World Report for having one of the nation's leading entrepreneurship programs. In 1998, the U.S. Association for Small Business & Entrepreneurship ranked Coles College as the number one entrepreneurship program in the nation. The Coles College also runs the nation's largest executive MBA programs.

Timothy has a Ph.D. from the University of Georgia, an MBA from Southern Methodist University and a BA from Tulane University. He has served on the faculties of Arizona State University and the University of Miami. In addition, he was a Visiting Lecturer at the University of Aston in Birmingham, England and at Nanjing University in China. He has also been a Visiting Fellow at The Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

Reception Honoring the 2001 Georgia Oglethorpe Board of Examiners

Join us Tuesday evening to recognize members of the 2001 Georgia Oglethorpe Board of Examiners. These individuals volunteered their time and energy unselfishly to make the 2001 Georgia Oglethorpe assessment, feedback, and recognition cycle possible. This event will provide those considering the examiner experience the opportunity to discuss the benefits first hand with actual examiners. Everyone registered for the conference is invited and additional tickets may be purchased. Don't miss the fun!

The Savannah Marriott Riverfront

Make your room reservations now!

Due to popular response, we are returning the conference to the Savannah Marriott Riverfront, which overlooks the Savannah River and adjoins the River Walk in historic downtown Savannah. A block of rooms at a special rate of $139.00 night single/double occupancy will be held until February 25, 2002. Reservations thereafter will be based on availability.

Call Savannah Marriott Riverfront - 912-233-7722
Mention the Georgia Oglethorpe Conference for our preferred rate.

Wednesday's Keynote Speaker

Michael Thurmond
Commissioner
Georgia Department of Labor

Michael Thurmond has enjoyed a distinguished career, including becoming the first African-American to be elected Georgia Labor Commissioner in 1998. In 1997, he became the distinguished practitioner/lecturer at the University of Georgia's Carl Vinson Institute of Government. In 1994, then Governor Zell Miller selected him to direct Georgia's historic transition from welfare to work. He created the innovative "Workfirst" program, which has helped over 90,000 welfare-dependent Georgia families move into the workforce, saving Georgia taxpayers over 200 million dollars.

In 1978, Michael was practicing law in Athens, Georgia and took an active role in the city's civic and political affairs. In 1986, he became the first African-American elected to the Georgia General Assembly from Clarke County since reconstruction. During his legislative tenure, Michael was the only African-American legislator elected from a majority white district.

The Commissioner was born in rural Clarke County, the youngest of nine children. He graduated Cum Laude with a BA in Philosophy and Religion from Paine College. He later earned his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of South Carolina School of Law. He also completed the political executives program at the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University.

Awards Banquet Celebration

Always the highlight of our conference, this year's Awards banquet will be no exception as we honor a landmark...

Four Georgia Oglethorpe Award Recipients!

- Turner Studios, a division of The Turner Entertainment Group, Atlanta
- Georgia Department of Defense, State of Georgia
- Stephens County Middle School, Eastanollee
- Facilities and Operations Division – Gwinnett County Public Schools, Lawrenceville

Individual banquet tickets may be purchased for additional guests.

To add to the excitement, Savannah's own Puppet People® will return with their brand of fun and antics. These eye-catching, life size puppets will provide a hand-clappin', toe-tappin' variety show cooked up Southern style, dished out with lots of humor and songs from Rock-and-Roll and Country to Broadway and Blues! Puppet People® is a group of professional puppeteers, singers, actors and artists who have taken the art of puppetry far beyond the realm of children's entertainment to create an exciting style of fun for all ages.
